Foreword

Our school, as we know it today, is built upon a combination of ideals. These ideals we achieved not only in the home, the church, and the community, but through the help of our teachers who instilled in us the will to attain a higher standard, a desire for wisdom, and the enthusiasm to keep this spirit. As we entered the doors and passed from class to class, we have received this influence.

May the 1958 Hixonian recapture these memories for you in the future as the seasons come and go, helping you to remember your classes, sports, outside activities, and last but not least, the many everlasting friends you have made.

Now may we present to you students, faculty, and friends of Hicksville, your 1958 annual.

Dedication

They have understood our problems, assisted us with patience of steel, listened to our complaints with an understanding smile, inspired us with confidence, encouraged us when we were disheartened, and promoted our chances for success.

Their companionship and personal interest in our social activities helped us enjoy many good times together. The scene at the Roadside Park depicted on the end sheets of this book is typical of the many family gatherings that have been shared by seniors and their parents.

Their determined effort to make us satisfied and happy shall always be remembered as one of our most precious high school memories. Words alone can never express our appreciation for their various contributions. And so to show how much we love, honor, and respect them, the 1958 Hixonian Staff dedicates the Hixonian to the Moms and Dads of the Senior Class.

*"Take a highroad that leads to a beckoning future —
Tho' it leads through the Autumn of life . . ."*

Superintendent

Principal and Secretary

Under the capable leadership of our superintendent, Mr. Normand Jones, our school moves forward in the world of progress. He capably assumes his many responsibilities to us and to the faculty. His understanding and advice have captured the respect and admiration of the entire student body.

Mr. Ringer, our principal, is the man who is always encouraging us to strive for the maximum in scholastic efforts. By praising our strength and correcting our weaknesses, he helps us to develop a better attitude toward the situations we face, both in school and in the community. We deeply appreciate his sincere interest in the student body.

Busy as our secretary, Mrs. Thiel, may be, she is always ready to give freely of her time and efforts to help anyone who may need it.

Our board of education is composed of men who give freely of their time to establish and maintain an educational system for the young people of the community.

Included in the responsibilities of the board is the appointment of a competent administration and staff for the school. Educational policies and school problems, even individual ones, consume much of the board's time. At present, an adequate budget to support a growing school system is one of their major considerations.

Development of Loyalty

The raising of the flag each morning has become a tradition at Hicksville High School. Many of the classes stand at attention each day at the beginning of school and repeat the pledge of allegiance. This gesture each morning makes us more aware of our individual liberties and helps develop better citizenship.

Custodian

Roy Bauer performs the thankless job of custodian at Hicksville High. The clean atmosphere of our school is due to his efforts. His friendliness toward the students makes him a friend to all

Cooks

An average of about 110 hungry students and faculty members a day file past the window in the cafeteria to get their trays of delicious looking food. Responsible for the meals are Mrs. Wolford and Mrs. Hisson, who are seen every day working in the school kitchen

Bus Drivers

Every morning and afternoon, Kenneth Countryman, Charles Meyer, Robert Bailey, Harold Camp, Dwight Burlingame, and Ralph Smith, may be seen transporting students to and from school. These men also put in many long hours taking teams and the band to their out-of-town appearances.

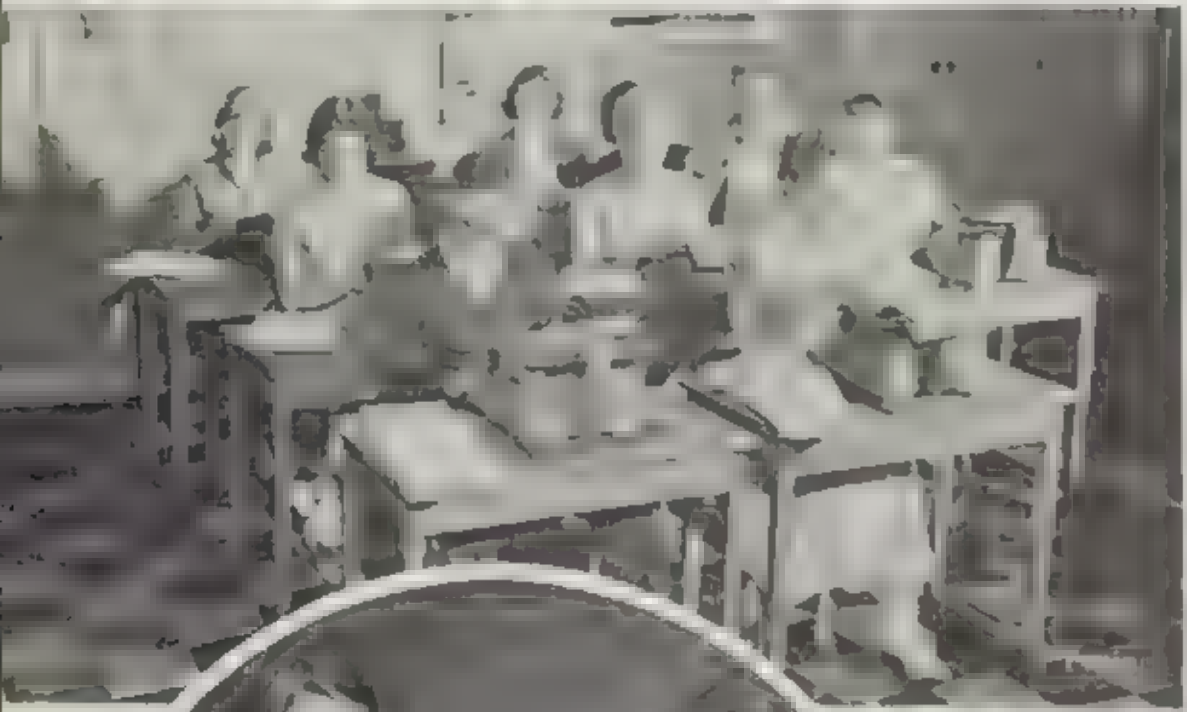

Classes, the most important part of our school life, are a combination of hard work and the applying of skills.

Judy Smith convincingly uses her acting ability to emphasize a point. Students learn poise and self-control in speech class.

Mrs. Wood lectures to Latin students: R. Krieg, L. Agler, T. Ridenour, and L. Smith. Latin is the only foreign language offered at Hicksville High. The fundamentals of proper English are stressed to seventh grade students: F. Burlev, B. Cook, D. Beals, K. Stairhime, and M. Kenner.

Business, the department of nimble fingers and quick minds, prepares the student for his place in the business world. S. Longacher and S. Rhoades learn the proper methods of bookkeeping. Being a stenographer takes hours of practice as K. Kirby and M. Wonderly are finding out. Junior and senior students work on accuracy and speed in typing.

A Day at H.H.S.

The skills of cooking, sewing, and home management are taught to home economics students. K. Burlev and G. Schneider busily work on their sewing projects.

Students develop healthy and coordinated bodies in physical education classes. K. Calvin, S. Bassett, D. Osman and J. West scramble for the volleyball.

In driver's training class, A. Arnold, A. Kenner, and S. Kennedy convince Mr. Simpson they are not "women drivers."

Useful, practical, and beautiful projects are produced by industrial arts students. R. Schooley, T. Knight, I. Mullet, learn the proper method of using a saw demonstrated by C. Krieg.

Between-class relaxation is shared by D. Tomlinson, T. Sholl, L. Jenkins, and D. Ducharme.

Algebra

F. Kuhn points out the angles of a circle to C. Langacher, J. Anderson, and J. Hilbert in algebra class.

Geometry students - J. Siebenaler, J. Hurni, J. Rodocker, and K. Onstott examine the many forms of a solid.

The biology collections of K. Wells, F. Toth, J. Rowan, and L. West are proudly exhibited.

D. Doeden, P. Cottrell, C. Wirick, and B. Hirzel really make things smoke when performing an experiment in chemistry class.

B. Geowetts, G. Nolte, S. Erlsten, P. Griffith, L. Robinson, and D. Votaw listen intently as Mr. Wahl explains a principle in physics.

Study Hall

Study hall provides a chance for students to prepare their lessons in a quiet place. They also have access to the library.

History acquaints students with the founding and progress of our nation. F. Blasing, N. Stairhime, R. Wright, and E. Lanum use many textbooks to further their knowledge.

L. Haver, V. Camp, and D. Carwile examine their "big world" in geography class.

Civics students learn about our government and democratic way of life. Studying the American Observer are Z. Tucker, J. Lamb, J. Handv, and F. Hostetler.

Aces in Action

Garrett

Lost 12-0

The first half ended in stalemate, the ball being kept pretty close to the midfield strip. Although both teams had a couple of important breaks, neither could capitalize. In the third quarter Garrett scored twice to take a 12-0 lead. The last quarter was a repetition of the first half. Overall, the game was one of the best played here in recent years with the defense of both teams showing up very well.

Delphos

The Aces lost to Delphos in heartbreaking fashion. Three times in the final quarter they were stopped less than 15 yards from pay dirt. The Blue Jay's margin of victory came when a lineman caught a fumble in midair and raced 40 yards for the score. Hicksville's first touchdown was a picture-perfect pass from Erlsten to Wirick who lateraled to Stairhime and then went all the way. The second came on an end run by Nolte after a long drive up field.

Lost 18-13

Archbold

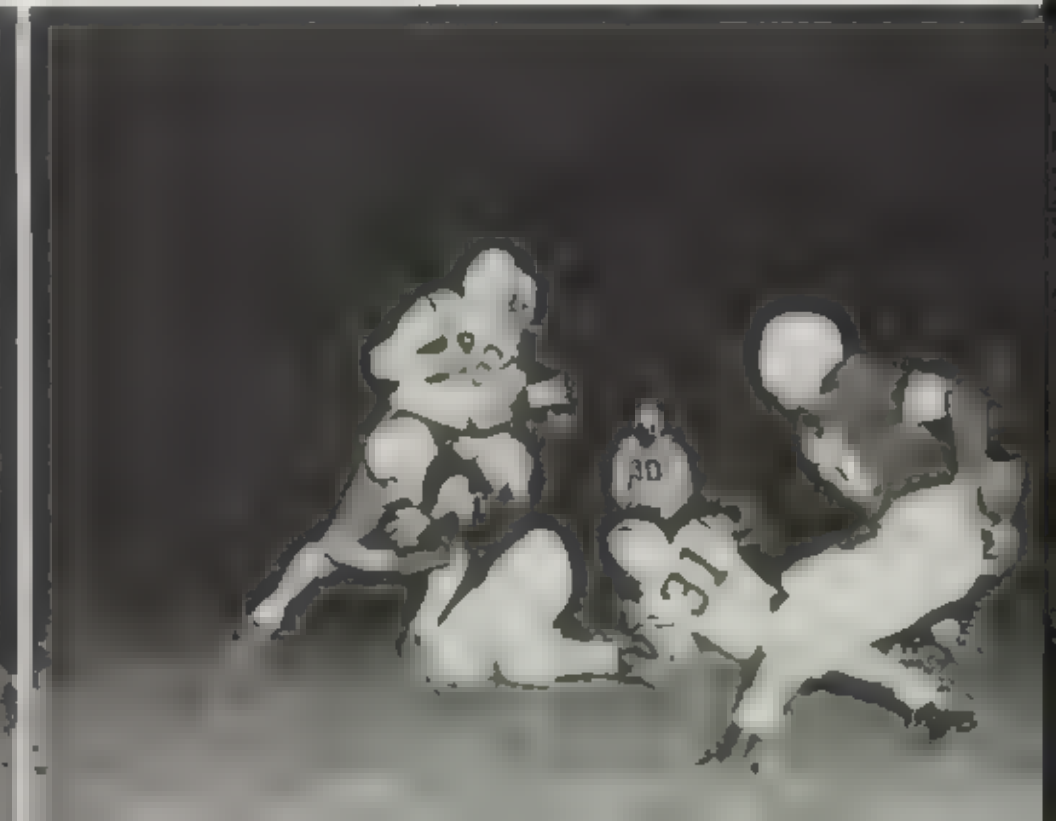

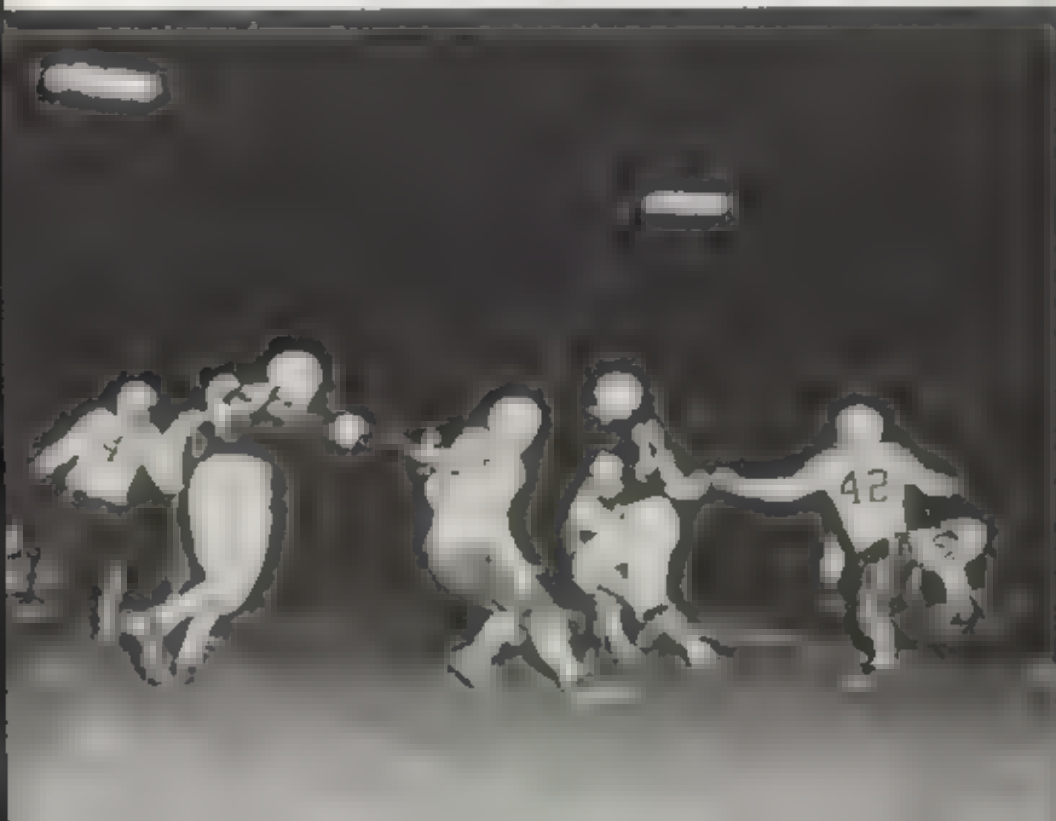

Won 19-0

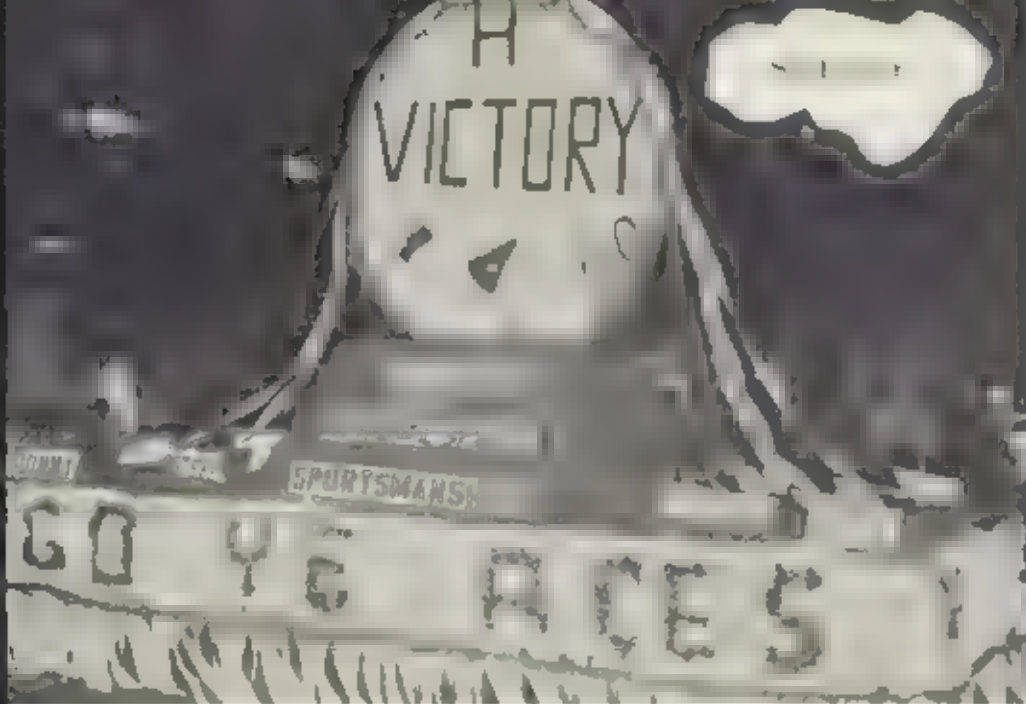

Playing on a field of mud, the Aces exploded for three touchdowns and had three more nullified as they literally ran over Archbold. With a stout defense outcharging the Blue Streaks consistently, the Aces put their offense into high gear. On a fine ground attack supplemented by a passing attack that connected on eight out of nine tosses, the Aces couldn't be stopped.

Payne

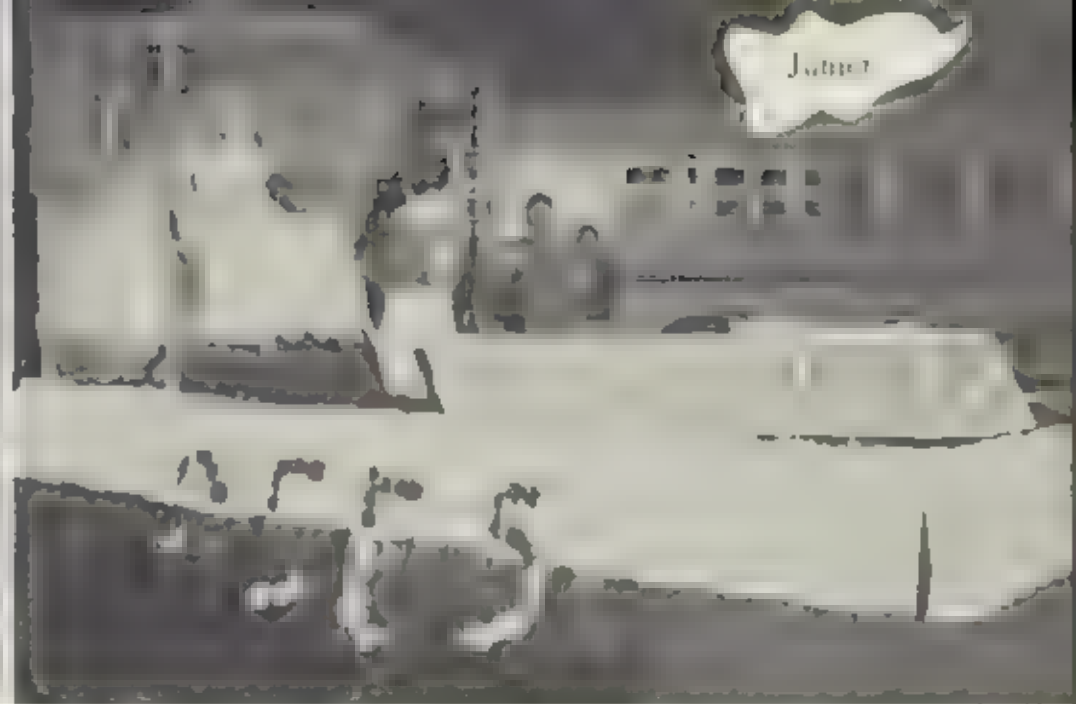

After playing listless ball the first half and trailing 13-2 the Aces came out steamed up and proceeded to take Payne apart. Behind sharp blocking, Jim Slaughter scored two touchdowns. The defense was equally good, throwing Payne back for a safety. The Aces threatened to score several times being stopped on the 1-yard line twice. The first time the ball was lost on a fumble and the second time the clock ran out to end the game and give Hicksville an 18-8 victory.

Won 18-8

A Big Parade Started Homecoming Celebrations

Hard work and long hours for high school students preceded the colorful parade of floats Homecoming Night. These floats were judged, and prizes were awarded to the following:

Sophomores—$15
Seventh grade—$8
Eighth grade—$3

Juniors—$10
Seniors—$5
Freshmen—$2

The combination of sportsmanship, school spirit, and teamwork climbed to victory on the sophomore float. This symbol was encircled with the names of the varsity football players.

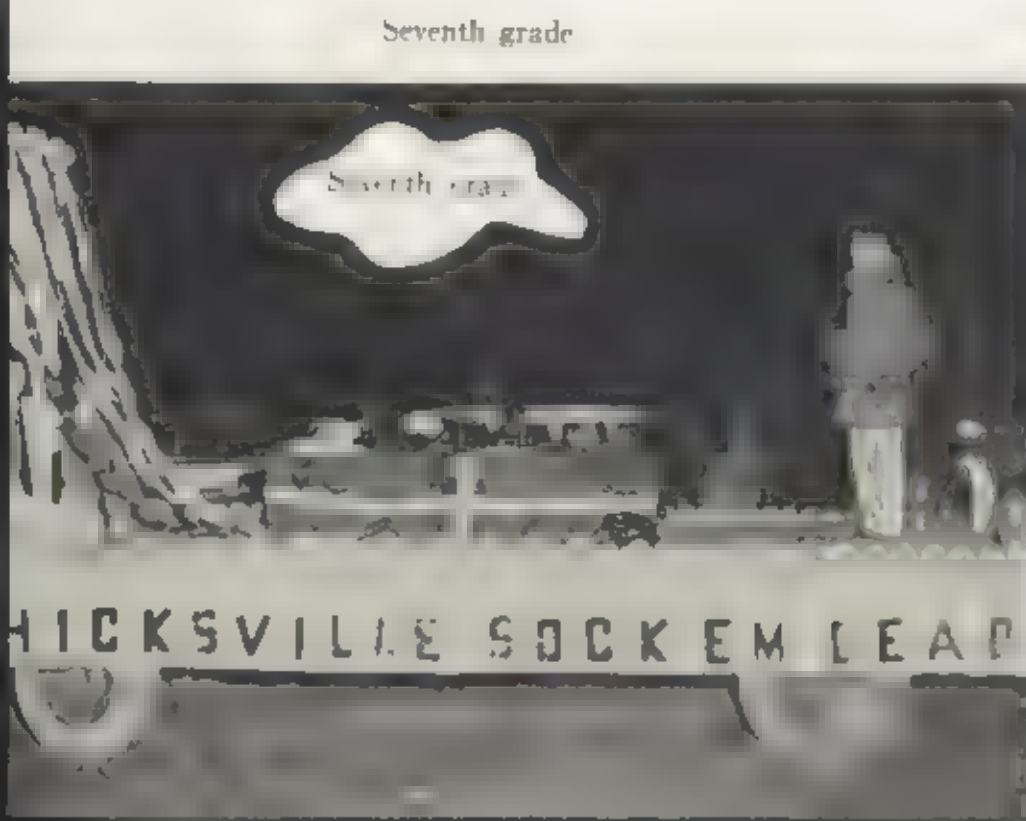

"Aces Slay Those Panthers." was the junior float theme.

It also had a model queen—C. Osman, with D. Votaw as a football captain.

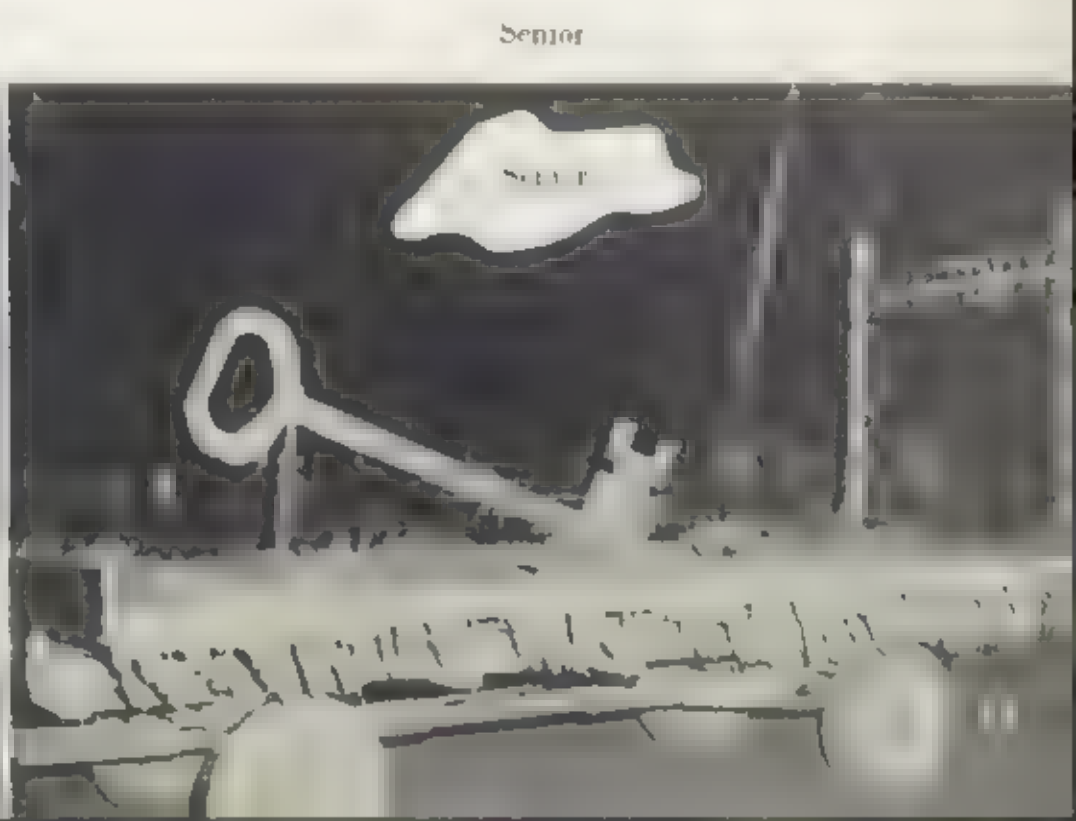

The seventh graders shouted, "Hicksville Sock 'em Dead." K. Toth was the bugler for J. Scott who was in his coffin. J. Kemner and R. Pierman also rode on the float.

The senior float featured a large silver key and silver letters of victory on the goal post.

The school spirit displayed in these floats is something of which a school may always be proud. Congratulations to all students who made the float parade a tremendous success.

With snappy cheers and pleasant smiles these enthusiastic reserve cheerleaders, S. Johnson, D. Tomlinson, J. Peter, and C. Jones set a fine example of sportsmanship and cheered the reserve team to many victories.

Fight! Fight! Fight!

The Aers' new offensive pattern above shows the players in their single-wing formation as viewed by their opponents this year. Backfield positions were, from LEFT TO RIGHT: Wingback, N. Starhime; Quarterback, G. Nolte; Fullback, J. Slaughter; and Tailback, S. Erlsten. The line positions from LEFT TO RIGHT were: End, D. Tomlinson; Tackle, L. Haver; Tackle, B. Boon; Guard, L. Robinson; Center, D. Ducharme; Guard, B. Gecowette; and End, C. Warwick.

These peppy seventh grade girls led the cheers at the junior high games. R. Pierman, J. Kemmerer, P. Burlingame, and S. Smith were unexcelled in their original cheer and enthusiasm.

FRONT ROW: L. DeGard, B. K. W. Lucks, F. Haver, F. Kuhn, G. Cant, F. Toth, M. Langham, D. Tustison. SECOND ROW: B. Hart, T. Ridenour, F. Blasing, T. Brown, A. Miller, L. West, J. Betts, B. Kline, B. Longworth, M. Burlingame, B. Milhoff, D. McMillan, K. Onstott

The Reserve Football Team under Coach Wahl split their four games, defeating Edon twice 26-0 and 32-0 and losing to Archbold and Montpelier 7-6 and 15-0. All candidates were taught the fundamentals of football and will be challenging for varsity positions next year.

The Junior High Football Team under the combined coaching of Coach Simpson and Coach Stockman lost their three games, one to Archbold and two to Paulding. Being small in size but not lacking spirit, it is hoped that the saying, "Mighty Oaks from Little Acorns Grow" will apply for this team in years to come.

Elementary School

The Elementary Building stands as a proud symbol of knowledge and of truth. The first steps toward an education are taken through its doors. It is the beginning of an educational adventure that can lead to opportunities and challenges.

Principal

The supervision of our Elementary School is capably administered by Principal Raymond Hook. His pleasing personality makes him a friend to all. Mr. Hook teaches health and physical education to the fifth and sixth grades.

Custodians

Many hours of preparation keep the cooks busy before that delicious noon meal. Our capable and willing custodians are Russel Myers and Alvin Beardsley.

Let's forget about my patients

Help, we're in a house full of nuts!

Under the direction of Mr. Murphy, the Senior Class presented "The Nit Wits" on November 15 and 16.

What happens when Tommy Winter's folks go on a vacation and he turns the house into a psychiatrist's office to earn money for college, puts everyone into laughter. The "Nit Wits" prove to be very amusing when they come to Tommy with their many unusual cases, but he tackles their problems and cures each one of them. But were they really insane? No, for when the plot unfolds, it was found that Mr. Winter had hired actors and actresses to be the patients.

The seventy-piece marching band stepped into the season with vim and vigor, from the Memorial Day Parade to the welcoming of Santa Claus. They worked with pride and responsibility to make this marching season a successful one. Their clever formations and peppy songs kept the football atmosphere a spirited one.

Homecoming Formation

"Ready, Play," as Mr. Paul Smith, our band director, beats out the timing at another day's practice

"All ready for a day of hard work, but fun too," think E. Volkert, J. Peter, D. Tomlinson, and D. Slattery as they prepare to leave for the Peony Festival

Forward, March!

Stepping high at the front of the band, Jim Slattery, drum major and the majorettes, Marlene Wonderly, Sue Stemen, Nancy Betts, Bev Ballard, and Colby Cecowetts show their talents and abilities. They help to keep the "Spirit of Hicksville" alive by adding entertainment and color with their fancy stepping, flashy twirling, and fascinating smiles.

The Riverdale game proved to be a close one throughout. After a first period squeeze, 15-13, the Aces at halftime led 29-25 by edging Riverdale 13-12. Third-period scoring honors were even with 14. The last quarter saw the Aces in a 4-point edge, 41-37.

Aces in Action

Shooting guard D. Ward and C. Wirick effectively execute lay-up.

L. Slattery goes in for one of his famous driving lay-ups.

In the Mark Center game, the Aces jumped to a 20-8 first-period lead. In the second quarter Hicksville took scoring honors by a 2-point margin, 18-16. After intermission, Mark Center came up with a 14-point third period, but in the final frame, the Aces doubled the score, 24-12.

F. Hicks eyes the basket for almost two years against the Aces.

The Aces continued on the victory trail by winning a big one over Edgerton 62-42. The Aces made up for their only two defeats during the regular season, both losses suffered at the hands of the Bulldogs. The big blow to Edgerton in the third quarter when Hicks led opened the gap with a big 22-7 scoring margin.

P. Lebler and J. Cronwell scramble for the ball as the Aces lead 42-21.

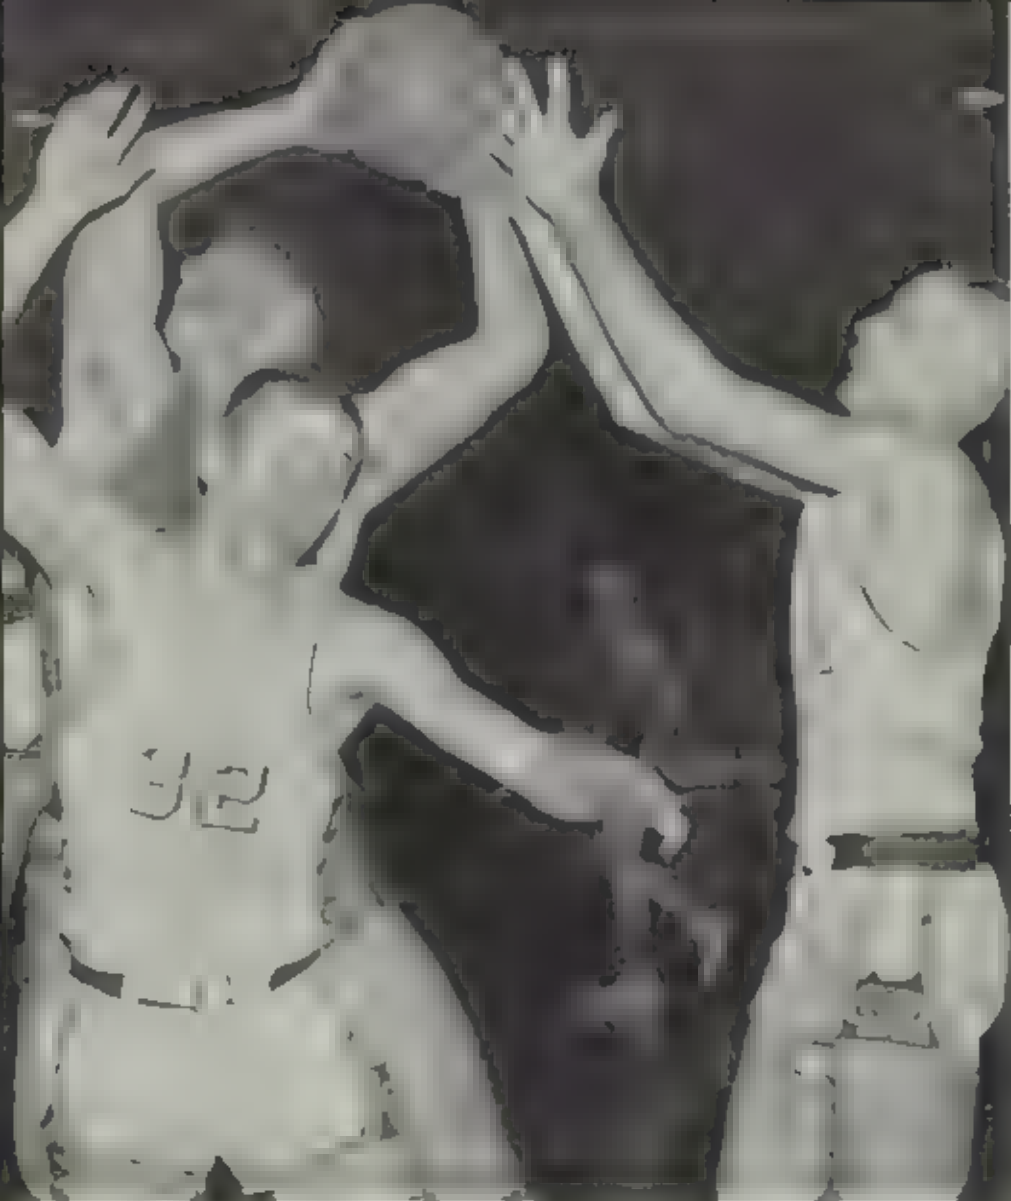

The opponent tries desperately with little hope to block a tremendous shot by F. Redeker.

High in the air D. Votaw gets close with another try out.

D. Votaw shoots out on a deep shot, the apt which proves to be a basket for the Aces.

Prince and Princess of Hicksville High

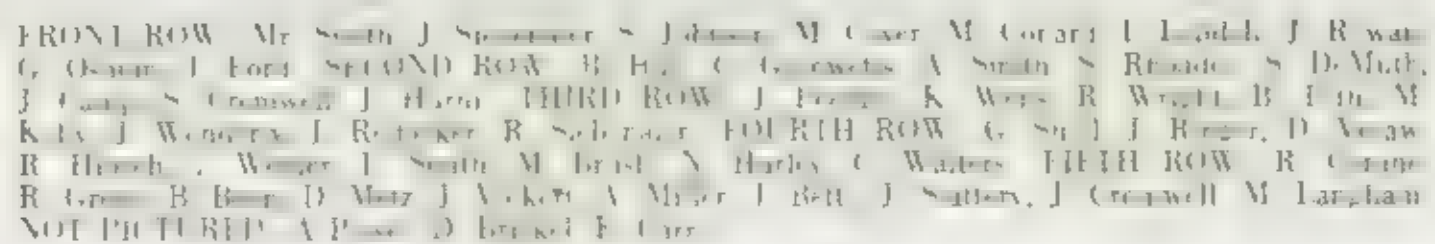

DAVID KIRBY—SANDRA CLARK

The Prince and Princess of Hicksville High School were chosen by the Sophomore Class. They won this privilege by winning the Ohio Sales Tax Stamp Contest. The Seniors, who were in second place, chose Reta Krieg and Zollen Tucker as Attendants. Sandra Clark and David Kirby represented the Eighth Grade as third place winners.

The Prince and Princess and their Attendants were honored at the annual Hixonian Dance on May 26.

The Freshman Girls' Chorus was organized last year and since that time has proved itself to be an important part of the music department.

This year's chorus, consisting of twenty Freshman girls, sang at the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

Star-Studded Voices

The High School Chorus was composed of forty-six members, of which there were four seniors, ten juniors, twenty-six sophomores, and six freshmen. Rehearsal time for this group was limited to twice a week.

The Chorus was very well received by those attending the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

On March 1, they sang at the annual district contest held in Bryan.

B. Breidenbaugh escorted by Mr. Murphy, is escorted by Mr. Jones to becoming a member of the National Honor Society

The Hicksville Chapter of the National Honor Society received its charter and held its first induction in an impressive candlelight tapping ceremony on May 8, 1958.

The chapter at Hicksville is sponsored by the Student Council. Its object is to create an enthusiasm for Scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render Service, to promote worthy Leadership, and to encourage the development of Character in students of Hicksville High School. Three faculty members, Mr. Howard Schneider, Mrs. Mary Culler, and Mrs. Ruth Wood, composed the organization and executive committee. The entire faculty serves on the chapter council.

The Society's standards are high. Election to membership is based on Scholarship first, with a grade average of 3.5 being required for eligibility. Candidates are then rated on a definite and strict basis on Character, Leadership, and Service qualities. Anyone who has these qualifications for membership may be justly proud to be a wearer of the key.

Our Monarchs "Reigned but Did Not Rule"

Queen Nancy Hurley — King Dick Rowan

The senior class of Hicksville High presented their annual Coronation and Variety Show on March 14.

The balmy breezes among the palm trees, the swishing of grass skirts, the many colorful leis, and that beautiful island music all combined, provided a relaxing and unforgettable evening of entertainment.

In this island setting, who could resist the charms of the pretty hula dancers, or the mystery of that unusual spectacle — the black-light war dance? All this, plus the novel calypso, a native interpretative dance, and many other typical Hawaiian numbers made an enchanting evening for everyone.

The high point of the evening was reached when King Dick Rowan, Queen Nancy Hurley and their Court, in all their majestic splendor, entered the auditorium.

Dancing to the melodious strains of George Wilderson's Orchestra began with the grand march led by King Dick, Queen Nancy and their Court and the Class of 1950.

Faithful slaves Z. Tucker, F. Hostetler, D. Votaw, and G. Meyers, guard and "cool off" King Kamaki Haver while N. Dunmire sways to hula music.

Islanders E. Johnson, J. Handy, S. Onstott, D. Carwile, and C. Krieg, relax under the shade of an island palm tree

In the middle of an island, D. Carwile is wooed by hula dancers, R. Krieg and M. Wonderly.

F. Hostetler, G. Meyer, N. Dunmire, D. Votaw, B. Clark, M. Hitzeman, L. Haver, and L. Smith enjoy some American "rock 'n' roll."

Lt. Brown Mistress J. Otis places the crown on Queen Nancy I on N. Hurley while J. Brown gives his kingly approval.

Lending an air of sophistication to the program, L. Brown assumed his role as Master of Ceremonies.

J. Ford shows her outstanding ability in her original dance of the islands.

Queen Nancy and King Dick rule in majestic splendor over their royal court.

B. Gecowetta, S. Onstott, J. Ford, and S. Erlsten interpret South Seas rhythm with the calypso.

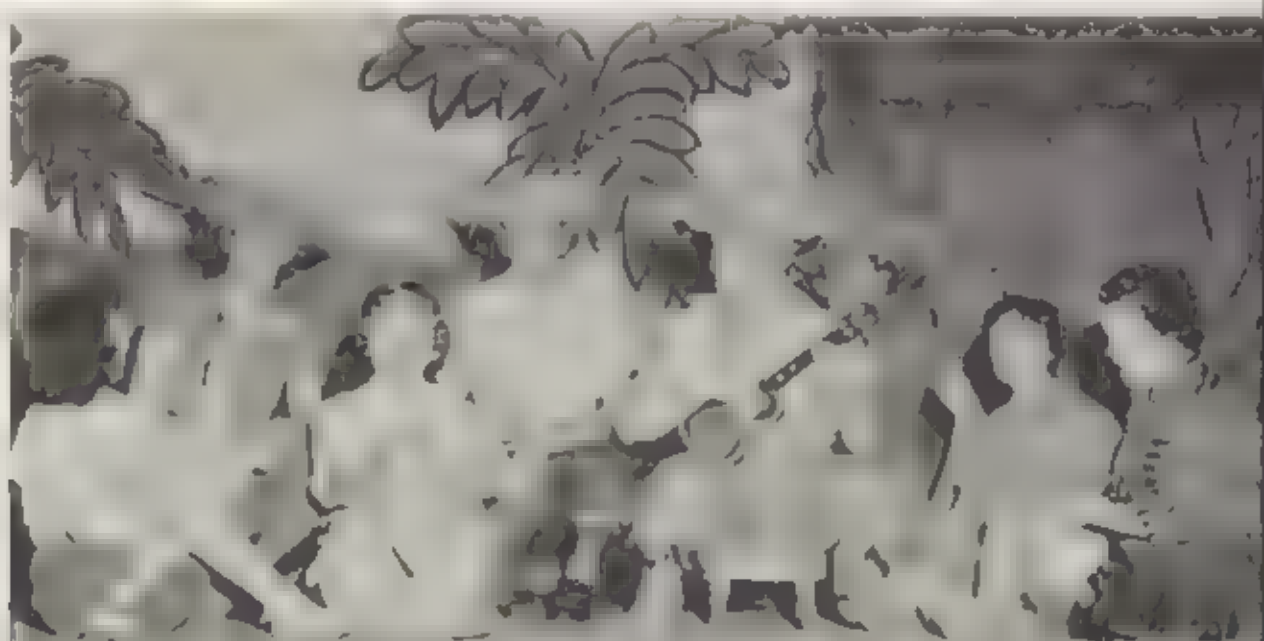

M. Wonderly expertly handled her sword in the black-light Hawaiian War Dance Soft music provided an appropriate setting for this display of perfect coordination as J. Otis picks up the handkerchief from the floor.

A Song of Old Hawaii was rendered by N. Hurley, S. Erlsten, A. Kenner, D. Votaw, B. Gecowetts, D. Rowan, D. Slattery and P. Ruckman

... of their music by the audience, from the rise of Mr. Smith's baton to the last applause, was evidence of work well done.

It takes a lot of wind to play a big horn and Jim Volkert has what it takes to play it just right.

With words from E. Eddie Carr's notes come out loud and clear as he performs.

Modern

Soft and clear ring the blending tones of the singers. But stop! Wait! Was that a sour note I heard there? Let's start over once more from the beginning . . . So go the practices of the Solo and Ensemble contestants. Practice makes perfect and perfect it must be. The students strived continually until March 15. Then came the challenge they had been working for. Twenty-four students represented Hicksville at the District Music Auditions at Bowling Green and waited with high hopes for the results.

Looks and voices must go together because these boys have both. They are Rex Canine, Jim Volkert, Dave Metz, and Jim Cromwell.

Tuning up for a perfect song is the girls' triple trio. They are Ann Smith, Accompanist, Shannon K. Carr, Jean Roderick, Sue Stenzen, Joyce Wonderly, Colby Gecowetts, Arlos Boger, Judy Camp, Susan DeMuth, and Connie Warner.

Debbie Votaw has entertained many audiences with her fine music ability.

When you hear the soft sound of piano keys, you will find Ann Smith playing. She serves as a piano accompanist to many of the music activities.

Music Masters

The Students who displayed their music and talent are:

Deborah Votaw, Baritone Horn

Jim Volkert, Sousaphone

Ed Carr, Trumpet

Ann Smith and Jim Volkert, Piano Solo

Jim Cromwell, Dave Metz, Jim Volkert, Rex Conine—Boys' Quartette

Sheila Johnson, Melissa Kelley, Beth Laub, Susan DeLong, Deanna Tomlinson, Judy Towne—Girls' Sextette

Sean Rodocker, Shannon Kilian, Sue Stemen, Colby Gecowetts, Arlos Boger, Deborah Votaw, Judy Camp, Connie Walter, Susie DeMuth—Girls' Triple Trio

Ann Smith and Mrs. Glenn Volkert, Accompanists.

The happiness of the girls' sextette is displayed in their voices as they sing. They are Deanna Tomlinson, Judy Towne, Beth Laub, Susan DeLong, Melissa Kelley, and Sheila Johnson.

"The Play's the Thing"

"Love Is Too Much Trouble," the Junior play, took place in an off-beat, off-the-campus joint called the Poison Pot. Pinky, Joe, and Oggy met here and devised ways to keep out of trouble. They hired a big name band and then couldn't pay for it. Locking the band leader in the deep freeze didn't help matters any. With people lying all over the place suffering from "food poisoning" and the health department trying to close the Poison Pot, there was some real excitement.

B. Hirzel, J. Rodocker, J. Volkert "He is stiffer than a board!"

Wings on Their Feet

Fifteen boys reported for the Hicksville track team this year. With a new track completed, interest in this sport should be stimulated for better teams in the future. Glenn Myers earned the captainship by accumulating 72 points during the season. Congratulations to all boys for their efforts this season. Under the capable leadership of Coach Schneider, the track team excellently represented our school.

"I never ran these before," said Jim Slattery, as he attempts the 180 yard low hurdles.

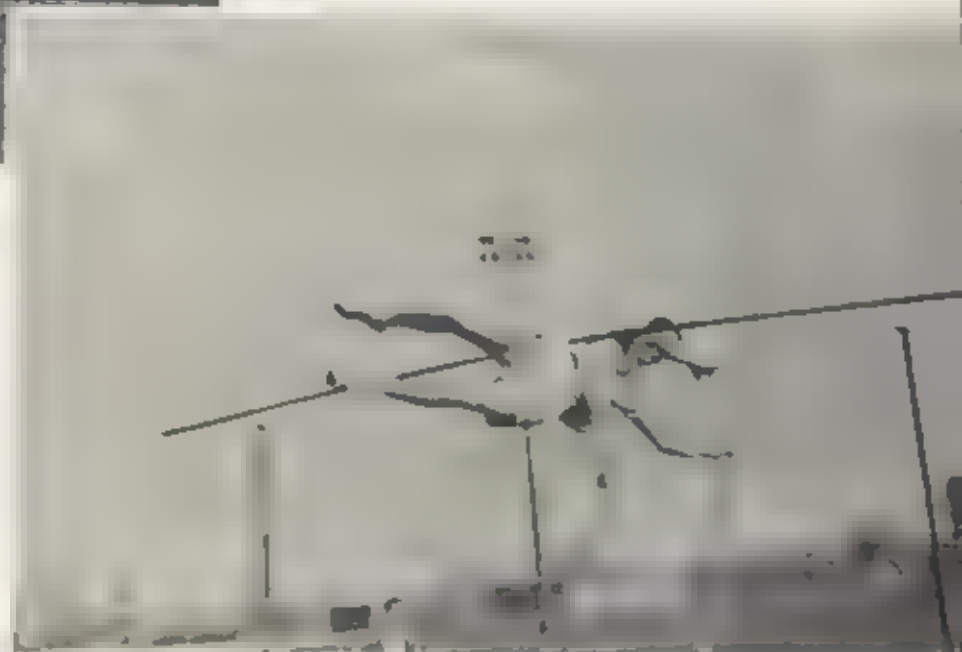

Showing good form, George Nolte clears the high jump bar at 5 feet 2 inches, good for first place.

The Hicksville Aces started off their baseball season by entering tournament play with only two days of practice.

In the first game with Delphos-Jefferson, the Aces came out on top by a score of 14-3. The Aces overtook Paulding the next day by a score of 8-2.

Still behind in play, the Aces met New Bremen. The game, played under heavy winds, was another victory for the Aces by the score of 10-6.

Next the Aces met St. Henry which proved to be a little stronger. With only one hit, the Aces were blanked 7-0. This ended their tournament play.

After their first defeat, the Aces got back in the winning ways by defeating Mark Center 6-2. With school coming to a close, the Aces got in three more victories. The first game, Ney was defeated 3-0. Next Hicksville's City team lost to the Aces, 8-0. The final game with Farmer showed a score of 11-6.

The Aces ended their season with a very fine record which consisted of eight wins and one defeat.

The Aces made a fine showing of their efforts through the top-flight coaching of Mr. Williams.

Valedictorian

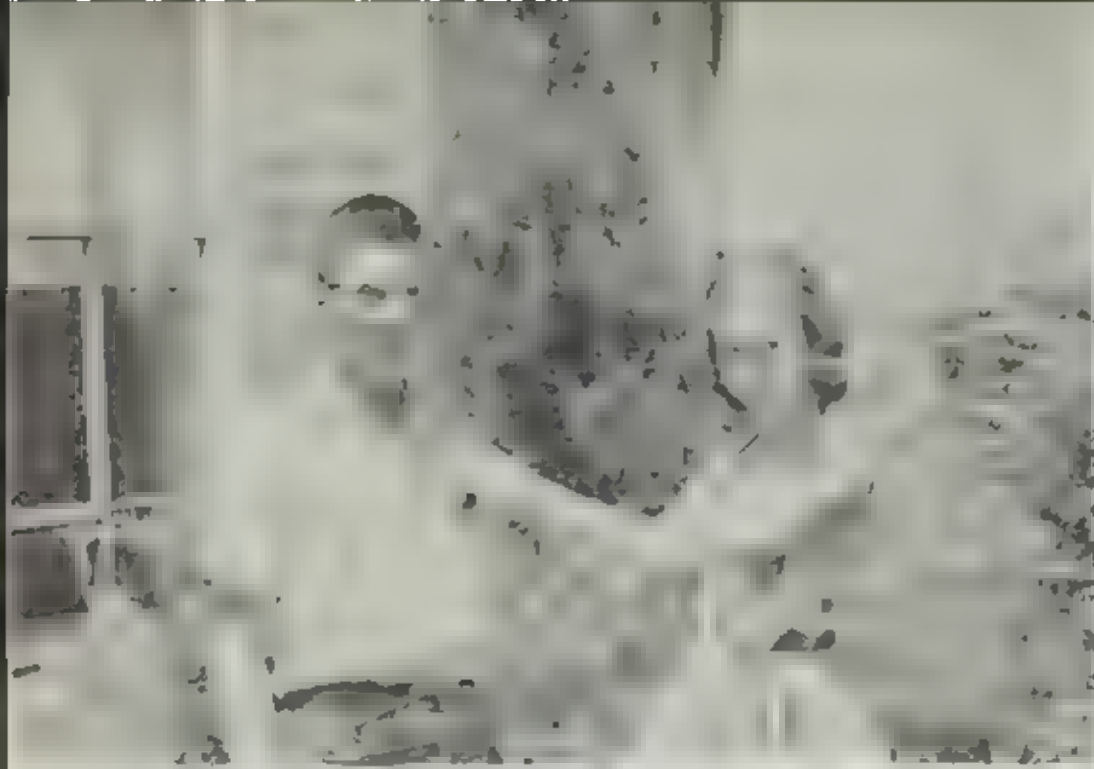

Because of her high scholastic standing throughout high school, Kathy Kirby has achieved the honor of Valedictorian. Not only was Kathy an "A" student, but she was always willing to lend a helping hand to the many outside activities in which she participated. Kathy's hobbies outside of school include cooking, sewing, and reading. The Senior Class extends their most sincere congratulations to Kathy for her outstanding record.

Scholars Supreme

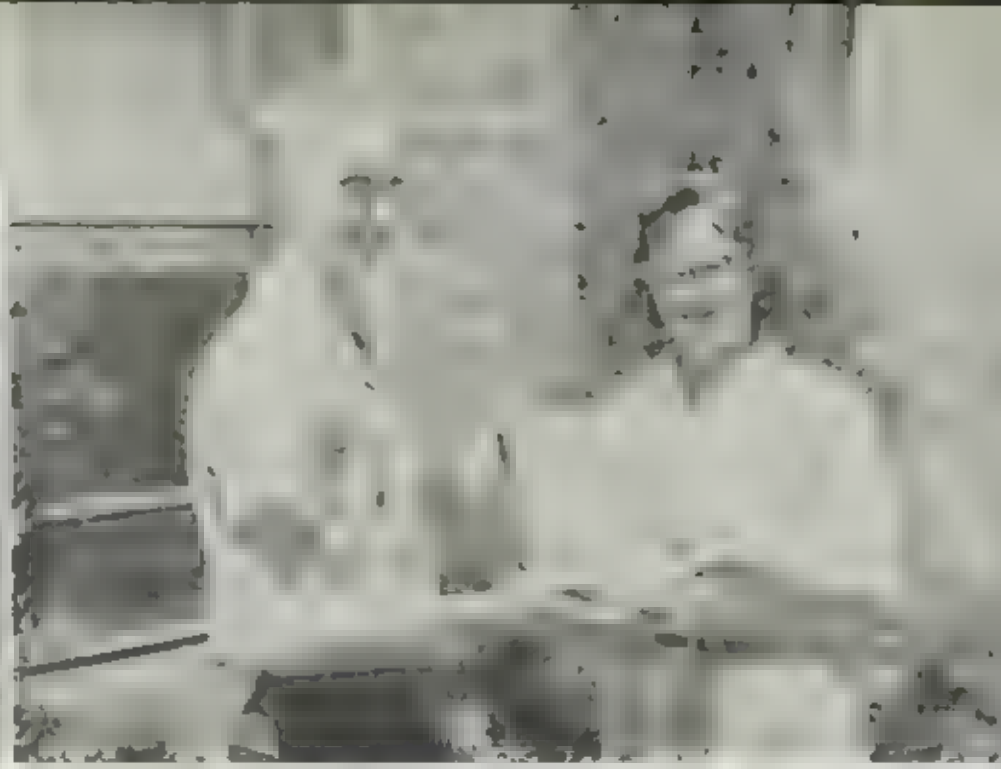

Salutatorian

The honor of Salutatorian was well earned by Bernadette Breidenbaugh. Not only did she rate high in scholastic ability, but Bernadette was always willing to do that extra work for F.B.L.A., Hixonian, and the Senior Class. The best wishes of the Senior Class go to Bernadette for a bright future.

The End and the

May comes and with it final exams, the Prom, Baccalaureate, and then Commencement. It is the end of a story of basic training and the opening of a new book of adventures lies before us. Throughout our twelve years we have had before us many trials and decisions, along with accomplishments and honors of which we can be justly proud.

We reach with extended hands for the long-awaited diploma. It is a key opening a door into our future. This door holds behind it further goals

A. Kenner and P. Ruckman—A final performance for these two players

FORFGROUND: 1 Robinson, P. Ruckman, A. Kenner, I. Slattery, B. Breidenbaugh, S. Erlsten, N. Hurley, J. Otis, and D. Rowan
Twelve years for this

FOREGROUND A. Kenner, G. Myers, L. Satterly, P. Griffith, B. Breidenbaugh, L. Smith, S. Erlsten, N. Hurley, V. Camp, G. Nolte, E. Johnson, C. Krieg, J. Otis, D. Rowan and K. Kirby. A very good speech: Bernadette.

Beginning . . . Diplomas

facing us as a challenge. We shall accept this challenge striving for success in all we undertake. The hand shakes and congratulations of our parents, teachers, and friends become a reward to us for reaching this goal of education.

As we leave school, we know it was not in vain that we learned, and that, while we take with us wonderful memories, we leave a little bit of us at Hicksville High.

P. Cottrell, D. Green, L. Haver, J. Ford, L. Smith, and D. Votaw—One goal reached, but many more to come.

G. Nolte and Claron Laub, President of the School Board. Our President deserves more than a diploma.

G. Nolte and J. Otis—Well, Joanne, we made it.

The Capitol in all its splendor.

L. Krontz, F. Hostetler, D. Carwile, M. Hitzeman, and S. Erlsten Hey, boys, look what we found

S. Onsten Hey—Don't leave me out!

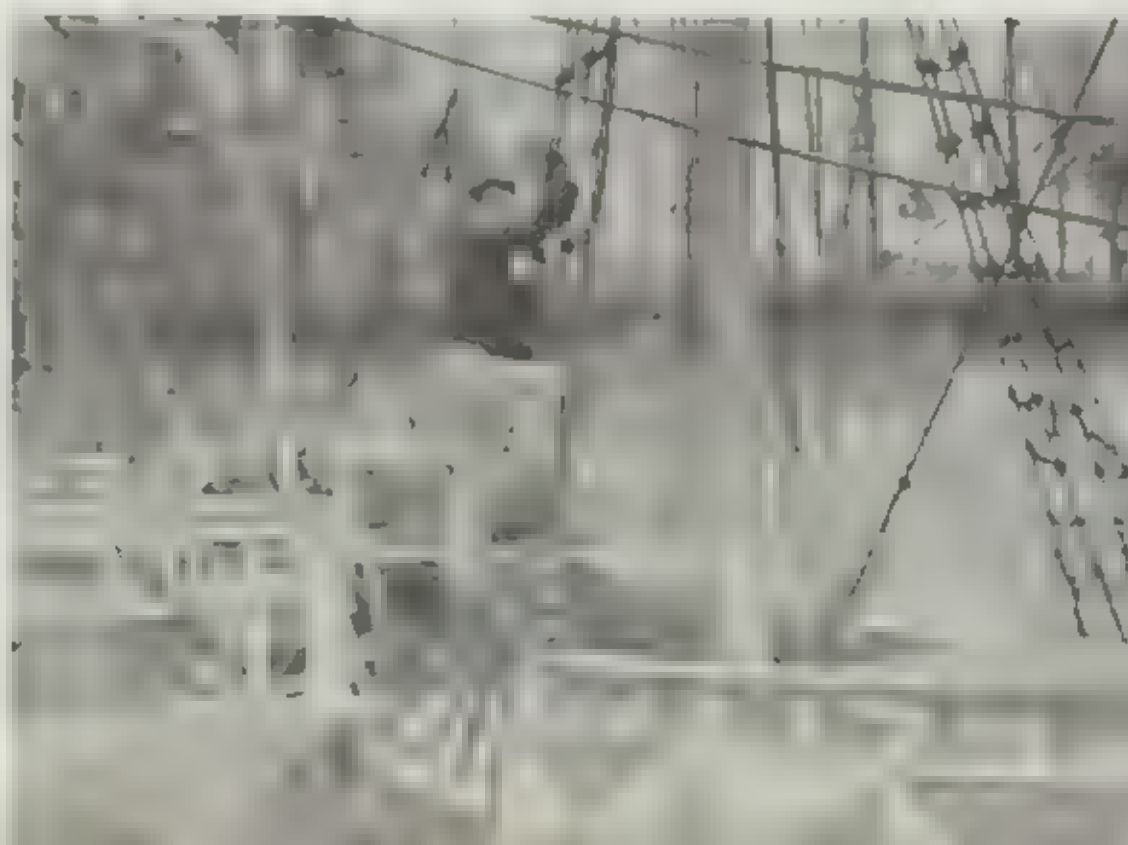

Senior Class in Washington and Williamsburg

L. Robinson—Come on up, the weather is fine

Mrs. Culler and Mrs. Ringer—Even the chaperones have fun!

L. Slattery, L. Haver, and G. Sholl Hey! You can't take a picture of us. We're eating!

Mr. Ringer What We need is a little pocketbook!

K. Kirby, N. Dunnure, and R. Krueger Hey, now! Is this allowed?

M. Hitzeman, F. Hostettler, and B. Murphy—Entertainment supplied free in the dome car.

Sunday night, April 13, the H.H.S. Senior Class left for Washington, D. C.

Monday was spent sight-seeing in our Nation's Capital, viewing the Library of Congress, the Supreme Court Building, the FBI, and the U. S. Naval Academy.

Later at Baltimore, Maryland, the Seniors boarded a large steamboat, "The District of Columbia," for a cruise down the Chesapeake Bay to Norfolk.

Tuesday was spent in colorful Williamsburg, Virginia, and historical Jamestown.

Included in the itinerary on Wednesday were the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Washington's Monument, the beautiful sight of the Japanese cherry trees in full bloom, the Smithsonian Institute, the U. S. Art Gallery, Museum of Natural History and the unforgettable trip to Mount Vernon.

M. Hitzeman—Now I know—there are 898 steps to the top of the Washington Monument 111

This step won't seem so big in 12 more years

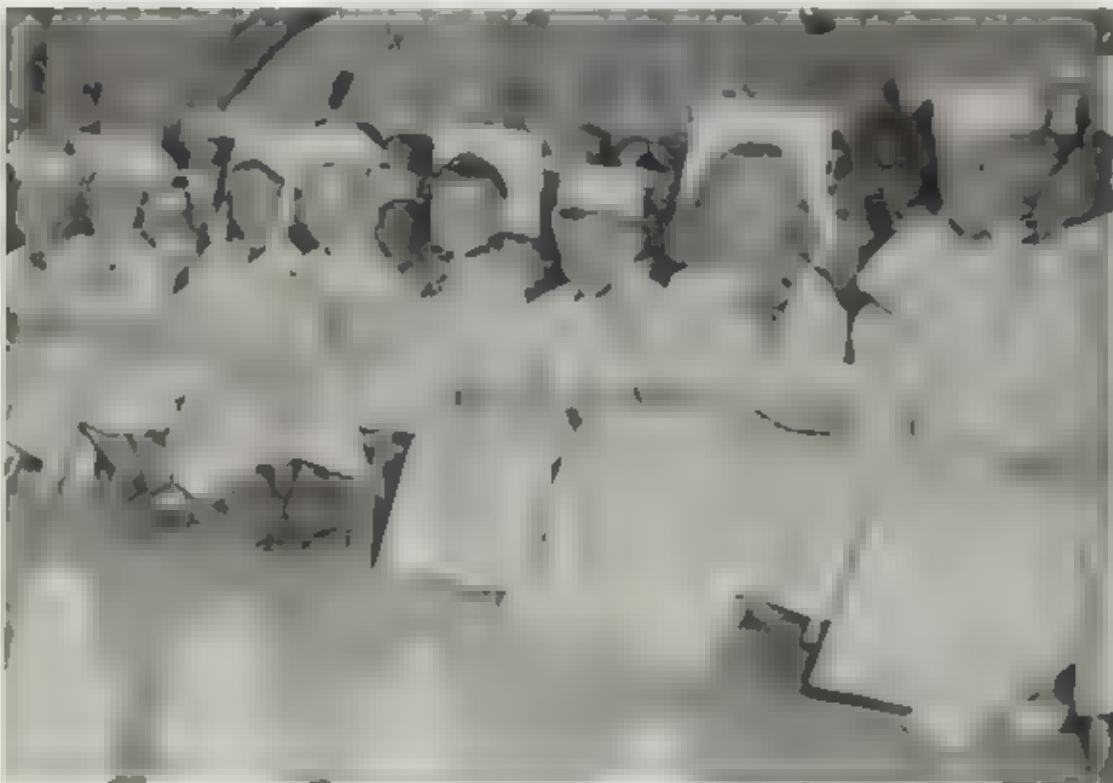

Mr. Jones extends congratulations to a member of the Class of 1970

Class of

Friday, May 9, the members of the Class of 1970 presented a program which gave their proud and beaming parents and friends a small idea of what they had learned since they entered school last September.

The kindergarten graduates were presented with diplomas promoting them into the first grade.

1970

When can we go home?

Oh, what if my hat falls off!

Student Government

The Student Council strives to represent the school body democratically in all subjects pertaining to school.

The council consists of two representatives from each class under the sponsorship of Mr. Ringer.

Conducting the election of the Homecoming Queen and Court, determining cheerleader elections, assisting with the sales tax and the polio fund campaigns, and helping to organize a Hicksville Chapter of the National Honor Society are typical activities of this elected selective group.

Nancy Hurley, President; Mr. Ringer, Sally Rhoades, Vice-President; and Dave Metz, Secretary-Treasurer; are making final arrangements for the first induction and candlelight tapping ceremony of our National Honor Society

Coordinators Peggy Ruckman and Annette Kenner "persuade" K. Kirby and R. Krieg to get their assignments done. The editors are to be commended for their untiring work in producing this yearbook

Meet Your

Through toil, tears, and turmoil, the Hixonian Staff of 1958 worked to bring you, the students and residents of Hicksville, your 1958 Hixonian

The industrious Hixonian Staff

Efficient Alumni editor, R. Krieg, sits on the roster of Hicksville graduates.

B. Breidenbach and J. Otis spent hours hunking up clever ideas and write-ups for the necessary literary copy.

D. Rowan and C. Nolt were our capable sports editors.

N. Hurley, as manager and J. Smith, as manager, kept the records accurate.

Advertising managers M. Wonderly and J. Smith enthusiastically accepted the job.

Yearbook Staff

We would like to thank the advertisers, administration, teachers, students, and others who have cooperated to make this yearbook a success.

over a hard year of work

K. Kirby pondered over new copy ideas as literary editor

D. Slattery and J. Handy really worked counting all those tax stamps

Our on-the-spot photographer, B. Gecowetts, assisted in taking pictures and collecting advertisements

V. Camp and E. Johnson were always willing to help whenever needed.

B. Clark faithfully served in the all important position of picture editor.

Mrs. Mary Culler, Hixonian advisor, was always ready to assist everyone. Without her excellent help and new ideas, this yearbook could never have been. The entire staff wishes to thank Mrs. Culler for her long, patient hours of helping u-
